

Dr. M. Sheldon Polsky Signed to Head Up CannaVision's Bay Pines Medical Cannabis and Pain Management Clinic in St Pete, Florida

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA (OTCMarkets-1/11/2018) StereoVision Entertainment, Inc. (OTC PINK: SVSN), a publicly traded Nevada corporation announced today that they're majority owned Florida medical cannabis and industrial hemp company CannaVision has signed Dr. M. Sheldon Polsky M.D. to head up their next medical marijuana and holistic pain management clinic at 9709 Bay Pines Boulevard St Petersburg, Florida.

“With our advocating for veterans use of medical marijuana, Dr. Polsky, having been honorably discharged from the Army and then retiring from the Air Force Reserve as a Full Bird Colonel, is a terrific selection to head up our Bay Pines Medical Cannabis and Holistic Pain Management Clinic,” said CannaVision's Chief Operating Officer, Steven Previceh. “Actually, just a few years ago, Dr. Polsky was a staff physician at the Bay Pine VA Medical Center across the street from our Bay Pines clinic. During Dr. Polsky's military service he was awarded the Army Commendation Medal and the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal. While, due to the mistakes in the medical marijuana legislation made by the Florida legislature that attorney John Morgan has filed a lawsuit to correct, and the bureaucratic red tape that's caused a slow start to patients applying for medical marijuana cards, some medical marijuana clinics are closing. We're staying true to our clinic's core mission of treating veterans and civilians with qualifying conditions such as PTSD and opioid addiction from chronic pain, and cancer patients, with medical marijuana. And we will be here for the exponential growth we believe is coming when the bugs are worked out of the system. Going forward CannaVision Clinics will also be expanding our variety of treatments for holistic pain management.”
